- 25X1 1. By 25 October a new replacement policy for the Chinese Communist army in 25X1 Korea was in effect. Chinese Communist battalions and regiments, after being 25X1 resupplied and reorganized in rear areas, will be sent to any front-line division in need of relief. A regiment or battalion carried under one division may appear on the line attached to a different division.

2. The main regrouping areas are north of the Wonsan-P'yongyang line.¹
3. On 25 October Chinese Communist Army Headquarters in P'yongyang designated General HUANG K'o-ch'eng (7806/0344/6134) commander of the Chinese Communist armies on the western front.² All armies entering the western area are subject to the command of General HUANG although they may be carried as components of army groups or field armies in other areas.
